OLDEST CHURCH IN SOUTH CAROLINA

GOOSE CREEK CHURCH - NEAR CHARLESTON, S. C.

St. James' Parish, Goose Creek, was established in 1706 and the building was completed in 1719. The only church not profaned by the British in the Revolutionary War possibly because the Royal Arms were allowed to remain over the altar. The Episcopal Church is architecturally one of the finest in the area.

Photography by Ernest Ferguson

Published by Photo Arts, Winnsboro, S. C.

PLACE STAMP HERE

POST CARD

26144-B

MADE BY DEXTER PORT WYACK, N. Y.